“M” was the first starring role for legendary actor Peter Lorre as well as the first “talkie” for famed director Fritz Lang. Lang considered the film his favorite. When asked why he did not remake the film in English, he responded “I have no reason to do that. I said all I had to say about that subject in the picture. Now I have other things to say.” “M” was ranked number thirty-three in Empire magazines' "The 100 Best Films Of World Cinema" in 2010. “Time Out New York,” an online review site published the list of its top fifty foreign films of all time in 2010, ranking “M” its number one choice.

The film will be shown in its original German with English sub-titles.
