

“To Kill A Mockingbird”

Featuring the REAL Atticus Finch

WHEN: Friday, August 28, 2015 at 5:30 P.M.

WHERE: The Main Reading Room of the Baltimore Bar Library (Room 618)
Clarence Mitchell, Jr. Courthouse (100 North Calvert Street)

COST: $5.00 – Light refreshments, included in the cost, will be served.

Contrary to what you might have heard, there is only one Atticus Finch, and he is and will always be an American hero, defined by his decency and courage to face adversity, to face danger, in the name of what is right. When the American Bar Association conducted a poll to determine who the greatest fictional lawyer was, it was entitled “The 25 Greatest Fictional Lawyers (Who Are Not Atticus Finch).” Their explanation being “In honor of that half century of service, we have decided to enshrine him in (perhaps consign him to) his own sanctum sanctorum—as a legal deity too lofty to allow comparison to...” Join us for a film ranked the greatest legal film of all time by the A.B.A. Journal, winner of three Academy Awards, including that of Best Actor for Gregory Peck. On a large screen, in the Main Reading Room of the Bar Library – How does it get better than that?

TICKETS: May be purchased at the Library or through the mail. Checks should be made out to the Bar Library. Although tickets may be purchased at the door, for the purpose of ordering refreshments, please let us know if you think you might be attending.
